Wedding Bells

McBRIDE — MAY

June, eldest daughter of Mr. & Mrs. S. I. May, and Harold, third son of Mr. & Mrs. Parley McBride, both of Raymond, were married in the Alberta Temple at Cardston, Tuesday afternoon, July 31st, with Pres. Edw. J. Wood performing the ceremony. Parents and other relatives, and number of friends of both young people were present to witness the ceremony and offer congratulations and best wishes for their success in the journey through life.

On Wednesday evening a very delightful reception was held in the 2nd Ward Chapel from 6 to 9 p.m. about 150 guests came to offer congratulations. There was a lovely assortment of gifts presented to the newlyweds to aid them in setting up housekeeping. A delicious punch was served. The mother of the bride assisted in receiving, also Mrs. Auburn Tillack and Mrs. Elmo Christensen sisters of the groom, and the bride's table was centered with a beautiful three-tiered wedding cake (which we haven't sampled yet), decorated by Mrs. T. J. O'Brien. The rotunda and the dining room off the kitchen were beautifully decorated in pink and white and made a lovely setting for the reception. The young couple are honeymooning now for a week or so and will establish their home in the McBride home in Raymond. June is staying on at the Treasury Branch for the present and Harold is going into the King Garage as soon as he is sufficiently recovered from his operation.

With their many other friends we join in extending best wishes for their happiness and success through the journey of life.

LABOR EXIT PERMIT RULES FOR STUDENT NURSES

Hon. Humphrey Mitchell, Minister of Labor, announced today that instructions have been sent to Local Offices of the National Employment Service, concerning the issuance of Labor Exit Permits to young ladies desiring to leave Canada to go to the United States in order to take a nurses' training course.

Due to shortages of graduate nurses in Canada, it is very necessary to maintain a satisfactory enrollment in Canadian Schools of Nursing, so that Officers in the Women's Divisions of Local Employment Offices are, by frequent consultation with the Registered Nurses' Association, to watch Canadian enrollments closely. Instructions point out this is particularly important during the weeks prior to the enrolment of new nurses in September and January. The issuance of Labor Exit Permits authorizing departure from Canada of girls who are qualified to enter as nurses-in-training, will be restricted where it would threaten or adversely affect enrolment in Canada.

Furthermore, the instructions explain that prospective nurses, who lack adequate educational qualifications for admission to Canadian Schools of Nursing, and who consequently enter American schools which are not, after graduation, eligible for registration as nurses in Canada. To avoid disappointment to any young women unaware of this fact, the Local Employment Offices are to family at this time. Mr. Higgins was a well known in Southern Alberta, having lived in the districts. The deceased took pleasure in taking an active part in the welfare and social life of the community in which he lived, being very talented and loved by young and old. His death will be keenly felt. —Leth. Herald.

PROVINCIAL RESTRICTIONS ON EMPLOYMENT IN COAL MINING RESTORED

Hon. Humphrey Mitchell, Minister of Labor, announces that a recent Order-in-Council withdraws the authority given in 1943 for the employment of male persons 15 years of age or over as coal miner workers, and of female persons 18 years of age and over as workers on the surface around coal mines.

The authority now rescinded was set up by Order-in-Council of May 17th, 1943, to assist the coal mining industry in overcoming labor shortages. Previous minimum age for employment of boys was reduced to 16, and the employment of women for some of the lighter surface occupations in the coal mining industry was allowed.

While in effect the regulations had relaxed Provincial restrictions in regard to employment in coal mines, the effect of the rescinding of the Order now is to return to the Provincial legal requirements.

Either boys or women already working for coal mines under the previous Dominion authority will not be disturbed at this time. The effect of revoking the Order is to prevent the engaging of any further persons except in accordance with Provincial regulations.

SHARE THE WATER

There is a very heavy demand these days for irrigation water both in the ditches and from the town pumping system. The hot days make lawns and gardens and pastures demand a great deal of water, and there just isn't enough to meet the needs for everyone to have all they need. Some however seem to think that their need is greater than anybody else's and they undertake to get their share regardless of the neighbor farther down the ditch, or the neighbor's hose.

It isn't a very Christian like act to take part of an irrigation stream from your neighbor, because he happens to be below you on the ditch. How would you like it? At this time of year the flow in our ditches is low all the time, and when we appropriate part of our neighbors water turn, knowingly, it doesn't seem quite the right thing. The Town water detective reports too that some people put the end of the hose down on the ground take off the spray and let it run, hoping they won't get caught. Some of these people have paid their $300 for lawn watering and some of them haven't.

Everyone knows that we all need water and lots of it. The question is "why can't we take our turn and our share and be satisfied?" If our neighbor doesn't want his turn and gives it to us, or if we trade with our neighbor, that's fine, but don't take it otherwise. Be a good Scout. Let your neighbor have his share without trouble. If you want more than your allotted hours, ask him if he needs all of his, but don't steal it. Share the water.

Sickness pills used during the invasion were invented by a Canadian scientist.

Griff Father (to son): "Why don't you get out and find a job? When I was your age I was working for $5 a week in a shop, and at the end of five years I owned the shop."

Son: "You can't do that nowadays. They have cash registers."

A Lancaster soldier and his lass had spent the day together, and on their return the girl's mother asked how she had enjoyed herself.

"Aw, reet," said Jane, "but I think Joe's a bit mean. He nobbut spent sixpence on me all day."

"Well, if I were thee I'd tek his sixpence back and mek him ashamed of himself," said her mother.

late that night Jane knocked on Joe's door.

"Ere," she said, "Tak this sixpence back. I doubt if tha can afford it."

"Be," said her lover, "thi should not a bothered to meet. It would a let it run, hoping they won't get caught in 't mornin'."

Rationing helps the FARMER

HERE'S HOW!

- Rationing assures everyone a fair share of scarce foods. Without rationing, farmers might get all the butter they need, they might not get sugar. City dwellers might get sugar but no butter.
- Rationing helps to keep prices steady.
- Rationing has assured farmers sufficient ammunition to protect their crops and livestock.
- Rationing makes it possible for farmers to get coupons to feed harvesters and other transient farm workers.

The FARMER helps Rationing

HERE'S HOW!

- By collecting and turning in the coupons acquired against the use and sale of butter and the sale of honey and rationed maple products.
- By writing to the Local Ration Boards for application form RB 77 as SOON as they know definitely that transient labour rations will be needed to feed extra help hired for periods of less than two weeks.

Rationing is not intended to add unnecessarily to the burden of Canadian farmers who, faced with shortages of labour, materials and machinery, have continued to respond to repeated calls for greater production.

It is a protection against waste . . . shortages . . . inflation.

PRUNE AND STAKE TOMATOES

Tomato plants are generally divided into two types — the self-pruning or determinate, and pruning or indeterminate types. The self-pruning type requires no pruning or staking and is the earliest to mature. Examples of this type would be such varieties as Early Chatham, Bounty, Farthest North, etc.

In spite of the fact that the determinate type of tomato plants are earlier and easier to handle most home gardeners still grow the indeterminate or pruning types in their yards. These not only mature their fruit later but sprawl over the ground at will, produce dense foliage, and take up a great deal of the garden area.

To speed up the ripening of fruits and to conserve space in a small back yard, plants of the pruning type should be pruned and staked. If there are only a few plants they may be trained to stakes which are 5 or 6 feet tall. If there are a great number of plants 3 strands of wire strung along the rows between posts is a convenient and easy way by many for their home gardens.

to stake them. Binder twine or any other heavy cord can be used to tie the plants to the wires or to the stakes. Care must be taken however to keep the loop around the stems loose so as to prevent girdling and breaking the stem.

As the plants grow, the small side shoots or branches should be removed. These shoots appear in the axils of the leaves and should not be confused with the leaves themselves. The leaves should be left on the plants as they manufacture food for the plant and for the fruit, and also protect the fruit from the sun.

The side shoots should be nipped off as soon as they appear for they reduce the vigor of the plant if left until they reach a great length.

After the plant has reached a height of 3 or 4 feet the top or main shoot may be removed so as to prevent the plant from growing too tall. At this height the plant should have at least 4 or 5 clusters of fruit on the main stem to ripen up.

Self-pruning or determinate types of plants 3 strands of wire strung along the rows between posts is a convenient and easy way by many for their home gardens.

DR. E. W. NEATBY
Director
Line Elevators Farm Service
Winnipeg, Manitoba

Cereals Smuts, Etc.

In January, 1944, we announced our intention to offer to farmers a free examination service including the detection of disease and weed infestation as well as of germination. We have developed the past year and a half to studying methods and securing the necessary equipment and will be ready to proceed with the service this fall. Ours is the only service in Canada offering a free of this kind. Besides making a free for smut and mechanical injury to seeds, we shall examine 40 samples coming out of the germinators for disease symptoms and advise respecting seed treatment accordingly. This service is provided without charge.

It is very important that farmers inspect their own fields and, if doubtful about the type of smut present, send a sample direct to Line Elevators Farm Service, Winnipeg, or take it to a local Line Elevator agent who will forward it to us for identification.

Losses caused by cereal smuts are very great and, with the exceptions of loose smut of barley and true loose smut of barley, they can be controlled with comparatively little trouble and expense.

Ask your local Line Elevator agent for a leaflet dealing more fully with this subject in which the various smuts are described.
